FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

ONGOING

TRAINING FOR THE PALLIATIVE CARE LEADERSHIP CENTERS

Palliative Care Leadership Centers™ (PCLC) provide intensive, operational hands-on training and yearlong mentoring for palliative care programs at every stage of development and growth. Palliative Care Leadership Centers™ have trained almost half of the nation's hospital palliative care programs. If you are already an active program, the PCLC curriculum will help ensure your sustainability and growth. If you're just starting a program, PCLC training will result in less ramp-up time and a more efficient, cost-effective program. For more information please visit <https://www.capc.org/palliative-care-leadership-centers/>.

UIC CLINICAL RESEARCH METHODS CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). The Clinical Research Methods online certificate program provides clinicians, including physicians, pharmacists, nurses, dentists and physical therapists, with the methodologies needed to conduct clinical research in a multi-disciplinary research environment. The CRM certificate program integrates relevant material from statistics, economics, epidemiology and research design with the knowledge necessary to make decisions on and manage research programs/ The program includes a series of five online courses that provide a rigorous introduction to research methodology, evaluative methods, and statistical computing and data management. Participants may choose to take all 5 courses, or may enroll in 1 or 2 that are most relevant to their practice. For more information please visit www.clinicalresearch.uic.edu.
