

Grants & Support

Support for Study of Human Origins

The Foundation for Research into the Origin of Man awards research grants and training grants. Research grants will be made to assist in the field or laboratory research directly related to the study of human origins. Eligibility is limited to applicants who are doctoral candidates or engaged in postdoctoral research. Research topics must address the broad issues of human antiquity, the geographical and ecological contexts of human evolution, evolution's tempo and mode or the changes that led to humankind's present physical and behavioral characteristics.

Training grants will be made to assist young scholars with interests in human origins to secure training in such fields as human paleontology, archeology, geology and biology or for museums and antiquities personnel to secure training in field and laboratory techniques. Preference will be given to scholars of developing countries which have hitherto been unable to provide funds for training in the field of human origins.

Inquiries and requests for applications should be sent to FROM, 41 E 42nd St, Rm 512, New York, NY 10017. There are two competitions annually, with 1981 application deadlines of March 15 and Oct 15. □

NSF Travel Funds for India and Pakistan

Through the US Scientific Cooperation Agreement with India and Pakistan, travel funds are available to American scholars. At least 4 months are necessary for processing a proposal. Deadlines are March 1, June 1, Sept 1 and Dec 1, 1981.

Proposals for cooperative research, guest scientists or workshops with India and Pakistan may be submitted at any time. Six to eight months are required for processing proposals. For further information contact Osman Shinaishin, Div of Intl Progs, NSF, Washington, DC 20550 (202/357-9402). □

NEH Summer Seminars for Teachers

The National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Seminars for Teachers Program annually supports approximately 115 eight-week sessions nationwide for some 1400 college teachers. The summer program is offered to undergraduate and 2-year college teachers to provide advanced study and research opportunities in the teachers' own or related fields. Each seminar accommodates 12 teachers. Participants receive a stipend of $2,500 for travel to and from the seminar site and for research and living expenses.

Prospective applicants should write to the seminar director(s) of their choice for more complete details on seminar structure, requirements and assignments and for application forms. Applicants may write for information to as many directors as they wish, but may only apply to two seminars. Since there is often keen competition for places in a seminar, prospective applicants are advised to take advantage of the opportunity to apply to two seminars in order to increase the chance of being accepted. Deadline for receipt of applications is April 1, 1981.

Titles of seminars that may be of interest to anthropologists follow, accompanied by the name and the address of the director. Brochures describing all seminars are available at most colleges in offices of sponsored research or from the deans of humanities or social sciences or from department chairs. Brochures may be requested directly from Div of Fellowships, NEH, Mail Stop 101, 806 15th St, NW, Washington, DC 20506.

SfAA Accepting Applications for Travel to Edinburgh

The Society for Applied Anthropology is accepting applications for travel support in conjunction with its upcoming meeting in Edinburgh. All scholars who are working in the US are eligible to apply irrespective of nationality. Applications should be sent to H Russell Bernard, Dept of Anth, 1350 GPA, U Florida, Gainesville, FL 32611. Include vita, four copies of complete paper, amount of lowest available air fare from home institution to Edinburgh and return and a list of all sources of support for which you have applied or intend to use to supplement the award. Papers must be no more than 10 pages, double-spaced, suitable for a 25-minute oral presentation. Applications must be received by March 6, 1981.

Elected officials of SfAA, its Treasurer and Editors of its journal are not eligible for support. Normally awards will be based on a percentage of air fare and will not exceed $500. It is anticipated that approximately 25 awards will be made. In the event an award is made, US flag carriers must be used. □

* Deadline is from previous year and subject to change. Updated information will be provided upon receipt by AN of formal announcements.

Placement listings appear regularly in the Anthropology Newsletter, distributed to all AAA members. In addition to listings, the Placement Service refers information on qualified applicants directly to employers who request it.

Rates are based on a single appearance or up to three consecutive appearances of the listing. Positions-Open listings are $75 (3X $150). Positions-Wanted listings are $30 (3X $50) to members and $75 (3X $150) to nonmembers. All Positions-Wanted listings must be prepaid.

Entries are limited to 100 words and must be typed double-spaced and received at the Placement Service by the fifth of the month preceding the month of publication. Listings in excess of 100 words will be prorated by the amount of excess (e.g., the fee for a single appearance of a Positions-Open listing containing 150 words would be 1.5 x $75 or $112.50). A Positions-Wanted form is required with each Positions-Wanted listing.

The Association also operates a separate Placement Service at its annual meeting and conducts employment workshops for applicants. For further information contact the Placement Service.

Address responses to the assigned box number, c/o AAA Placement Service; inquiries will be forwarded. All correspondence should be addressed to Placement Service, AAA, 1703 New Hampshire Av NW, Washington, DC 20009.

Statement of Policy

The Association endorses equal opportunity practices and reserves the right to refuse or to edit advertisements that are not in consonance with the principles of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Applicants and employers are urged to comply with the provisions of the Principles of Professional Responsibility (1971), especially those relative to confidentiality of informants and the Resolution on Open Employment (1973). Advertisers are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of their listings, although the Association reserves the right to decline to publish listings which it believes are misleading or inconsistent with principles adopted by the Association. Placement Service listings of openings will not include requests for references with applications, by direction of the Executive Board. Solicitation after determining initial interest is suggested to minimize inconvenience to applicants and referees. Names of referees may be requested, however. Notice of censure action taken by the American Association of University Professors and the Canadian Association of University Teachers will appear when an institution advertising a position is under censure.

POSITIONS OPEN

81-766 DARTMOUTH COLLEGE, Department of Anthropology, seeks cultural anthropologist. Appointment for 3 yrs, renewable; rank asst prof; salary negotiable. Minimum requirements: completion of PhD in anthropology by Sept 1981; specialization in social structure and social theory; cultural interests in South America, East Asia, or Oceania. Demonstrated competence in both research methods and theory as these apply to study of social, political, and economic organization; ancillary interest in applied research advantageous. Sex, race, age, ethnic and national origin will not affect evaluation of person's candidacy. Qualified candidates should apply directly to Hoyt S. Alverson, Chair, Dept of Anth, Dartmouth Coll, Hanover, NH 03755. EOE/AEE.

81-855 THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA invites applications for a temporary 1-yr joint position in religion and anthropology for 1981-82, potentially renewable for 1983-84. Requirements for the position include (1) a PhD in social anthropology, (2) field research in Africa, (3) scholarly background in religious studies, and (4) evidence of competence in research and teaching vis a vis the black religious experience. Salary is competitive at asst prof level. Send resume to Richard A. Krause, Chair, Dept of Anth, U Alabama, University, AL 35486. EOE/AEE.

81-859 SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY is searching for an archeologist. Specialist in paleoenvironmental studies will be given preference but other areas of specialization will be considered for a 1-yr visiting appointment. Rank and salary open. Appointment effective Sept 1, 1980. PhD required. Send vita by March 1, 1981 to Chair, Dept of Arch, Simon Fraser U, Burnaby, BC Canada V5A 1S6.

81-860 CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY, Medical Anthropology Program of the Department of Anthropology, anticipates a tenure-track opening in medical anthropology at the asst prof level for fall 1981. Requirements include (1) a PhD in anthropology with specialization in medical (cultural) and (2) interest and experience in urban research in the US or other industrial societies. The candidate will be expected to develop research projects in medical anthropology in Cleveland as well as teach in the graduate and undergraduate programs. Case Western Reserve encourages applications from members of minority groups. Candidates should send vita and names of 3 references to Melvyn C. Goldstein, Chair, Dept of Anth, Case Western Reserve U, Cleveland OH 44106. EOE/AEE.

81-862 UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS-AUSTIN, Department of Anthropology, invites applications for position in physical anthropology (tenure-track) at level of asst prof. Position begins Sept 1981. Desirable person who has Old World field experience in general area of paleoanthropology and hominid origins. Ideally, training in paleodemography and evolutionary theory is wanted, but will consider other areas of specialization that have a bearing on nearby hominid development. Candidate must have strong interest in teaching, both graduate and undergraduate, in addition to research interests. Send letter outlining qualifications, vita, and names of 3 references to S. Chad Oliver, Chair, Dept of Anth, U Texas-Austin, Austin TX 78712. EOE/AEE.
