CALLS FOR PAPERS

Association for the Social Sciences in Health

The Association for the Social Sciences in Health is seeking contributed papers for its sessions at the annual meeting of the American Public Health Association in Anaheim,

California, November 11-14, 1984. Papers should present a significant social science perspective on issues and topics of public health, broadly defined. They may report on completed or continuing research, developments in methodology, policy analysis, or other subjects of interest to an audience of social scientists and other health professionals. Those interested should submit by April 6, 1984, six copies of their abstract on the standard abstract form for the 112th APHA Annual Meeting, accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Richard Kasius, Room 414, 1 E. 75th St., New York, NY 10021.

Symposium on Women's Health

The Council on Nursing and Anthropology is organizing a symposium entitled "Women's Health" for the 83rd Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association, November 14-18, 1984, in Denver. Individuals interested in presenting papers should submit abstracts and registration fees (see the November 1983 Anthropology Newsletter for forms) by March 1, 1984. Send abstracts to Jody Glittenberg, PhD, Professor of Nursing and Anthropology, University of Colorado, 4200E 9th Ave., Denver, CO 80262.

Dissertations in Progress

The student representatives of the Medical Sociology Section Council of the American Sociological Association are sponsoring an evening session, "Dissertations in Progress," at the annual meeting of the American Sociological Association in San Antonio, August 27-31, 1984. Medical sociology, medical anthropology and related health sciences graduate students (i.e., public health, nursing, health psychology) are invited to submit a paper for a 15-minute talk on substantive content and process issues (for example, gaining entrée, emergent ethical dilemmas, negotiating with advisors, problematic aspects of data collection) related to their dissertation research. Dissertations may be in the planning stages. The papers will be assessed on the basis of topical interest, research design, and a pertinent process section. Eligible students should have received their degrees no earlier than December 1983. Submissions should include contributor's name, year of study, departmental affiliation, and address, and must be received by March 30, 1984, in duplicate—one copy each to June Lowenberg (University of California, San Diego), 321 Firtree Ct., Encinitas, CA 92024 (619/481-1338) and Janet Gans, Department of Sociology, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA 01003 (413/545-0577).
